Incident Summary: On December 29, 2020, at approximately 4:39 pm, Columbus Police Patrol Officers were dispatched to 679 Rhoads Avenue on a report of a shooting. Callers reported several gunshots and a male dragging another male to a car which then left the area. Upon arrival, officers found a blood trail from the street to the front door of 670 Rhoads Avenue where officers forced entry. There was a large scene inside, but no occupants. Moments later, two vehicles arrived at a local area hospital with the two gunshot victims. Both victims were immediately taken into surgery where they remain in critical condition.

This incident is still under investigation. Anyone with information regarding this incident is asked to call the Columbus Police Felony Assault Unit at 614-645-4141 or Central Ohio Crime Stoppers at 614-461-TIPS (8477).
